WELCOME

If you are a visitor to All Saints, we want you to know how welcome you are-whether you have come from another part of the country, from across the world, or from another parish here in the Diocese of Dallas. Thank you for praying with us. Thank you also for your generosity, which helps us to celebrate All Saint's liturgies here in a fitting and beautiful way, and to offer a wide range of services to needy people living in the Dallas area. Enjoy your visit and know that you always have a home here at All Saints Catholic Church!

OUR VISION

We gather as the Body of Christ: to grow in our faith, to serve, to share.

OUR MISSION

We the faith community of All Saints, united in God's family through our Catholic tradition, gather to bear witness to the teachings of Jesus Christ and share His eternal mission. We come together for communal worship, education in faith, spiritual growth and fellowship. Inspired by the Holy Spirit, we reach out as Christ's hands to spread God's love, healing and forgiveness. We are committed to our tradition of hospitality, diversity and tolerance. We invite all to use their time, talent and treasure to make present the kingdom of God.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. ALFONSE...

"I tell you, ask and you shall receive, seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you."

We give up way too quickly and give in way too quickly. We give up on the Lord way too quickly and give in to sin way too quickly. My excuse is that I doubt in the Lord more than in myself. I am overly confident, overly stubborn and overly sinful!

"You have defied me in word, says the Lord, yet you ask, "What have we spoken against you?" You have said, "It is vain to serve God, and what do we profit by keeping his command, and going about in penitential dress in awe of the Lord of hosts. Rather must we call the proud blessed; for indeed evildoers prosper, and even tempt God with impunity." (Mal 3:13)

I say I ask and I do not receive. I seek but do not find. I knock and no door is ever opened. But I know in the deepest depths of my soul that this is not true. What is true is that I ask once and dream a lot! I glance and run so as not to be found. I knock on the wrong door and it always opens, for I know the combination well to every door that my heart and soul desires. I know what I seek most and find least. I seek to be blessed as my own god at the expense of finding my God. I seek the least and never find the most.

What is the least? The now! I do not plan. I am a creature of comfort. I seek that which is most appealing to me. I seek the friend that comes to me at night but do not have the faith or strength to take care of him. I seek to be a host without being a host. I seek to be a father without putting the time and effort to be one. I seek to be a husband without putting the love and sacrifice required. I seek to have children without being a mother or a father. What is the minimum? It is my selfless desires without selfish denials.

"Blessed are they who hope in the Lord." Do I just want to be or do I want to be holy? Is the Universe just here or is it complete? Is life a journey without end (purpose) or is it paved with gold and marked with destination? Is life just the visible or is marked with hidden and blessed mystery? Do I live for myself or do I live for others? Do my decisions dictate my fate or is it the twists and turns of fate that dictate my decisions? Did I find love or did it find me? Did I impose my will or was it imposed for me? If we have a mind to ask, to seek and to find then the answers are obvious: "Blessed are they who hope in the Lord!"

Hilaire Belloc wrote of himself to his good friend G.K. Chesterton,

"I am by all my nature of mind skeptical, by all my nature of body exceedingly sensual. So sensual that the virtues restrictive of sense are but phrases to me. But I accept these phrases as true and act upon them as well as a struggling man can. And as to the doubt of the soul I discover it to be false: a mood: not a conclusion. My conclusion – and that of all men who have ever once seen it – is the faith. Corporate, organized, a personality, teaching. A thing, not a theory. It.

To you, who have the blessing of profound religious emotion, this statement, may seem too desiccate...But beyond this there will come in time, if I save my soul, the flesh of these bones – which bones alone I can describe and teach. I know – without feeling (an odd thing in such a connection) the reality of Beatitude: which is the goal of Catholic Living."

FAITH FORMATION

NEW MASS TIMES EFFECTIVE AUGUST 3-4, 2019

For the past year, the parish has wrestled with parking congestion during our Sunday morning Masses. By mid-morning, our own parking lot is at capacity with an overflow of approximately 120 cars into the street and the neighboring shopping center. The new center owners plan to renovate soon. These new owners do not want us to use their parking spots and may enforce this with towing. Our goal is to celebrate the Eucharist as a family. After much consultation and study, we will start a revised Mass schedule beginning August 3-4:

- Saturday, 5:00 pm with a cantor
- Sunday, 7:15 am quiet, without music
- Sunday, 8:30 am with the contemporary choir
- Sunday, 10:00 am with a cantor
- Sunday, 11:30 am with the classical choir
- Sunday, 5:00 pm with the teen band

Beginning the week after Labor Day, our new Faith Formation Class schedule for children age three through fifth grade will be:

- Sunday 10:00 am (starting September 8)
- Wednesday 4:30 pm (starting September 11)

Junior High Faith Formation and High School gathering times will remain the same; Jr High Youth meet on Sundays 3:15 pm - 4:45 pm or 6:15 pm-7:30 pm and High Schoolers meet Sundays after the 5 pm Mass.

Please watch the bulletin and website for online registration instructions. In-person registration will be offered August 4, 2019, 8:30 am - 1:00 pm

All Sunday morning Mass times will change August 4, impacting everyone frequenting those Masses. We ask everyone to adjust for the common good. Thank you to all who shared their concerns and perspectives. Thank you to our music ministers and other parish ministry coordinators who revised their liturgical ministry schedules to accommodate these changes. We are confident that this new schedule will provide excellent Sunday worship utilizing our existing parking.

"And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him." Romans 8:28.

NEW THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE STUDY!!!

Jeff Cavins "The Bible Timeline: The Story of Salvation" will be facilitated on Thursday Mornings beginning September 12, 9:45 a.m. This Bible Study is open to all. We will take a 24 week journey through the entire Bible, going deep into each period of salvation history and discovering the amazing story woven throughout Scripture. $35 for the participant materials - financial assistance is available. Please do not let the cost deter you from attending.

"The best part was that I didn't even know I needed this healing, but God did! I felt His mercy and forgiveness at all moments."

Have you been trying to be strong ever since the day you were involved in an abortion decision? Trying to convince yourself that you don't need any help, and that there is nothing more to be done? God is calling you to something better – where you can be restored to who you were created to be once and always wanted to be. Join the men of Project Joseph® on their annual Day of Healing. You don't have to be strong on your own anymore! Let the men of Project Joseph® tell you how they had to let that go and let God take the burden from them, so they could be the men God created them to be.

MINISTRY SPOTLIGHT

The Men’s Club Promotes Spiritual, Service and Social Activities at All Saints

The Men’s Club here at All Saints consisting of over 100 members started over 20 years ago providing many fun and enjoyable activities for parishioners throughout the year. The All Saints Men’s Club is a parish organization for men who engage in spiritual, service, and social activities to benefit our parish, their families and themselves.

Woody Berry, past president of the All Saints Men’s Club says that, “ The Men's Club at All Saints is a wonderful group of servant-hearted guys. I'm so proud of these guys. I joined 12 years ago because I felt a little nudge from the Lord to get more involved up here... The greatest blessings to me, far and away, are all the friendships I've been able to cultivate through this fantastic group of merry men!

“After attending the first meeting, I realized that this was what I was searching for... I encourage all male parishioners to come see what we do..”
-Mario Del Puerto,
Current President

The Men’s Club meets on the first Monday of the month from 6:00 pm to 9:00pm in the Kamel Life Center Fellowship Hall. The club is split into four teams: St. John, St. Jude, St. Michael and St. Patrick. One team prepares dinner each month for the rest of the club. The Men’s Club regularly helps with set-up and tear-down at parish events such as the Fall Festival each fall.

Mario Del Puerto, current president joined ten years ago after being invited by one of the founding members Connie Rodgers. He says that, “ After attending the first meeting, I realized this what I was searching for... I encourage all male parishioners to come see what we do. The Men’s Club has only one rule and that is there are no rules. You come to the meetings when you can and you help as much or as little as you can and nobody judges you.

The Men’s Club offers a relaxed atmosphere for fellowship and prides itself on its quality of membership. The club is open to any male parishioner 18 years of age and older.

If you are interested in learning more, contact Mario Del Puerto, 214-228-7887 or mario@grandinstallations.com

Spiritual

The Men’s Club supports the spiritual growth of all of its members through various activities. Prayer is an integral part of the fellowship between the members. Club members share their faith in a number of compelling ways including:

- First Friday Mass
- Eucharistic Adoration
- Corporate Communion Mass
- Praying the Rosary
- Montserrat Retreats
- East Texas Retreat
- Prayer at Club Meetings

Service

The Men’s Club supports our parish and surrounding community with assistance through service and fund raising projects. Continuing service activities in which we support include:

- ASCS Scholarships through our “FORE” Golf Tournament
- Richardson Interfaith Habitat for Humanity Home Construction
- Parish Landscaping
- St. Vincent De Paul Christmas Fund for area youths in need.
- Easter Egg Hunt
- School Milk Fund for Children.

Social

In addition to working hard, Men’s Club members also get to know each other better at the meetings on the first Monday of the month. We meet in the Fellowship Hall at the church. The club is divided into 4 teams that take turns preparing the meal for those in attendance. In addition to the monthly meetings, other social activities include:

- Friday Lenten Meals
- St. Joseph Feast Dinner & Dance
- Parish Picnic and Truck Raffle
- Fall Festival
- Shrimp Fest & Dance

WHY A 16 PAGE BULLETIN? In an effort to keep All Saints parishioners informed of upcoming events in and around our community as well as provide additional opportunities to promote our ministries, we will periodically produce an expanded edition bulletin. On the extra pages (pp 11-14) this publication features additional events around the area, our first ministry spotlight (All Saints Men's Club) as well as our monthly calendar and staff contacts listing (back to back so you can save it for family planning). We are still tweaking, so let us know what you think!
